HOMECOMING...

A Dad's promise fulfilled

Silang, Cavite, 9 May – A homecoming and a reunion is always associated with unforgettable and wonderful memories that have been shelved at the back of one's mind.

Similarly, a motherland visit of an adoptee is always a reason to celebrate for the CCV family. On the 9th of May, while the entire Philippine archipelago voted for its new set of political leaders, CCV looked forward to the arrival of one of its adoptees—Junnie van Maanen.

Junnie was 17 months old when he was discharged in 2010 to a Dutch family. Now, after 6 years, Junnie and his adoptive family came back to the Philippines to re-visit his CCV family. Junnie's background history of having been born to an underprivileged family is what prompted his aunt to finally surrender him to the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) for eventual placement to another family.

During the Dutch family's visit, Junnie's Dad recounted that when his adoptive son was around 4 years old, he was very outspoken about the idea of coming back to the village for a visit. However, Dad told Junnie to wait until he turned 7 years old. When the right time came, Junnie's adoptive parents fulfilled their promise to their son.

Junnie's homecoming was more than a reunion with his CCV family. Though he could not recall any of the familiar people who took care of him and who had loved him, his Dad observed that he felt very much at home while he explored the village with his family. Junnie's Dad further stated that it was so unlike him to feel at ease in a strange place, to feel so connected to the people and the place who had first nurtured him.

(sigh...) home is where the heart is... till we meet again, Junnie!

Silang, Cavite, 2 to 5 May – A sports competition always brings out the best in all of its participants.

This summer, the teens and staff were split into two teams and competed in both indoor and outdoor games. Beyond a doubt, volleyball is the most popular game in the village, played in different events: men's, women's and mixed. Both teams were very competitive in all the games but then, of course, only one team bagged the championship.

As the cliché goes, the winner takes it all!

Makati City, 1 May – A group of friends led by Kat Ocampo and Chezka Bermillo came up with the idea of hosting an exclusive screening of the movie 'Captain America: Civil War' (rated PG) in Rockwell Power Plant Cinema at Rockwell Center in Makati City as a fundraiser for CCV. Five free movie tickets were allotted to CCV.

As of 22nd of May 2016, the superhero film produced by Marvel Studios had grossed

$ 1.053 billion worldwide making it the highest grossing film of 2016. (source: Wikipedia)

The CCV representatives had a marvelous time watching the record-breaking movie. In addition, 2 CCV representatives won a surprise each during the raffle done after the movie concluded.

Way to go, ladies! Thank you for your generous support to CCV's cause.

1st JAGS Golf Tournament

Silang, Cavite, 7 May – Four friends came up with the idea of raising funds for CCV by holding a golf tournament aptly called the 1st JAGS Golf Tournament. Tournament venue was at the lush green South Forbes Golf Club in Silang, Cavite.

JAGS is the acronym of the four amateur golfers who collaborated in organizing the first ever tournament dubbed after the first letters of their given names: John Romualdo, Alvin Garcia, Gilbert Bernal and Steve Hurtado. Among the four gentlemen, Mr. Hurtado has previously donated to CCV and his idea of arranging a golf tournament to benefit CCV came into fruition with the altruistic support of his three other friends.

Congratulations, JAGS! You really aced it!

The management of JEC Phils. Inc., under the clear-cut leadership of Guenter Taus, JEC's current Managing Director and CCV President, came up with a fundraising event dubbed the 8th JEC Partners Cup, an annual badminton tournament. The tournament started in 2008 and it is now on its 8th year as the play-offs title suggests.

JEC invited its current and potential clients to the tournament. After 4 years, CCV is the event's second beneficiary since 2012. It was heartwarming to know that some of CCV's donors were present in the competition (Globe, Fluor & Schneider Electric).

Thank you Mr. Taus and JEC Phils. Inc.! Your team's support has always been a smashing hit!

Luis Monserrat, Peter Stevens & Agnes Luna endorse donation to Ms. Che Naval Silang, Cavite, 20 May – The management and staff of the Hospitality Innovators, Inc. (HII) organized a lunch party at CCV on the 20th of May. Twenty CCV teens and young adults attended the hotel executives' "lunch for a cause." HII is one of the leading hotel and property management companies in the Philippines.

Mr. Peter Stevens (CCV Board member) together with his wife Mrs. Margie Stevens (CCV Honorary Board member) spearheaded the fundraising event. The occasion was in fact a celebration of the birthdays of the three Executives of HII namely: Ms. Agnes Luna (Executive Vice President), Mr. Luis Monserrat (Founder and Chief Executive Officer) and Mr. Peter Stevens (Executive Director) who all happen to have their birthdates in the month of May. The donations generated during the half-day affair with the hoteliers will fund the daily operations of the village. To HII, thank you so much for your generosity!
