Thanksgiving Night

November 17, 2016, Silang, Cavite – “Nothing is more honorable than a grateful heart. – Seneca.” Indeed there is always something to be thankful about. On the 17th of November, the CCV family gathered for dinner to celebrate Thanksgiving. Guest of honor was Kurt Swart, an American overseas worker in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (KSA). Kurt has been searching for a Foundation to support. While visiting some foundations in the Philippines he came to CCV. He knew he made the right decision after being given a tour of the facilities. On his initial visit, he pledged to donate funds for the upcoming Thanksgiving celebration. True to the word of a gentleman, Kurt wired the funds from KSA after he was sent a proposal regarding the Thanksgiving celebration.

As guest of honor during the night, Kurt talked about the origin of Thanksgiving. Dinner followed and everyone enjoyed participating in the indoor games. Dinner was a mixture of Asian and Western cuisine which managed to tickle the palates of everybody.

Kurt will soon be visiting CCV again in the first quarter of 2017 as he further donated funds for the repair of one cottage in the village.

Kurt, we are extremely thankful for your support and we hope this will be the start of a lifelong partnership with you.

Annie the musical

19 November 2016, Pasay, Metro Manila – The CCV teens and young adults were given an early Christmas treat by Mr. Joris Spanhoff (of Poweredge) to watch Annie, the timeless musical for children of all ages. The musical was held in Resorts World Manila on the 19th of November 2016. The teens and young adults and some of the CCV staff who accompanied them completely enjoyed the experience of watching the musical which was as timeless as the songs sung by the excellent actors and performers.

After the show, the CCV family had a delicious treat at Parmigiano, an Italian restaurant located in Resorts World Manila.

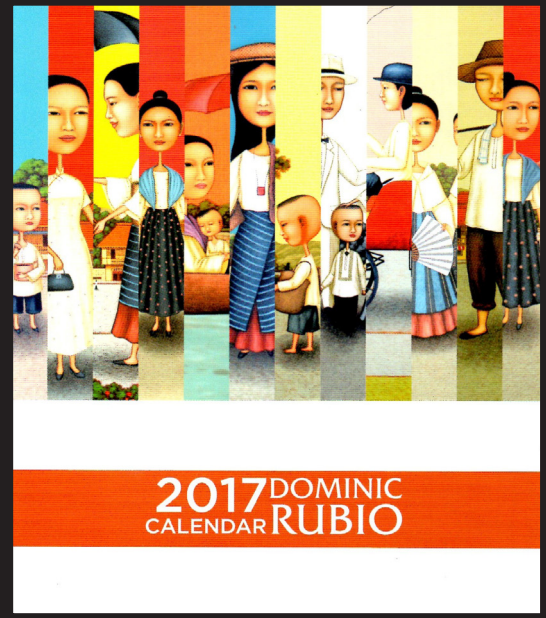

Thank you so much to: Ms. Alicia Dela Cruz, Mr. Lucien Magpantay and Mr. Joris Spanhoff of Poweredge for the fantastic treat!
