THE VERDICT IS FIVE YEARS!

07 Apr 2018 – The first quarter of the year of the dog has been most kind to CCV. Right after receiving a highly esteemed recognition from the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) as one of the four best NGOs in the entire archipelago, CCV has been re-certified by PCNC as a donee institution with a legitimacy of five (5) years. You read it right. Half a decade!

Thus far, this is the highest level of accreditation given by the Philippine Council for NGO Certification since CCV first became accredited by the body in January 2013. Fully compliant with the crucial documents by February 27, CCV received the verdict on the 21st of March 2018, following three weeks of suspenseful wait.

PCNC is a private, voluntary, non-stock, non-profit corporation that serves as a service organization whose main function is to certify non-profit organizations that meet established minimum criteria for financial management and accountability in the service to underprivileged Filipinos.

What exactly is the relevance of being PCNC certified? As a donee institution, CCV's Finance Department may issue a Certificate of Donation to a benefactor who wants to trim down government taxes. Eligible for issuance of Certificate of Donation are monetary, personal and real property endowments only but certain terms and conditions apply.

A Day at Tubigan Garden Resort

Now 7 years old, Jillian visits CCV on 24 March 2018

Jillian with her Swedish parents Magnus and Matilda

CCV summer outing was funded by the parents of Jillian

Apr 2018, Paliparan, Dasmariñas, Cavite – Most of the CCV teens and young adults were up and about in their separate rooms and cottages even before the good old roosters in the village hacienda knew it was morning. It was only 3:00 AM.

So what was it that made them leave the warm comfort of their beds before sunup? Of course it was the thought of cooling off... frolicking... and rollicking all day at the swimming pool! Mama Bing vowed everyone was ready with his/her individual travel bags before breakfast. There was no time for procrastination.

It was the first visit of the CCV teens and young adults at the resort. Located in one of the most urbanized parts of Dasmariñas, Cavite, Tubigan Garden Resort was a welcome relief from the scorching and near-roasting heat synonymous with summer time in the Philippines. Amenities in the resort were both child and adult-friendly and were totally enjoyed by most of the teens and young adults. Every minute and every hour counted for them and they had one of the most wonderful days of summer.

One inescapable fact of life--- all good things must come to an end.

So when Mama Ecat reminded everyone to pack up early, she was not surprised that Michael's high spirits took a sudden dive straight to the bottom of the pool at the idea of leaving the resort. These feelings were echoed by everyone but they knew that they need to go back to the village at the end of a great day.

The CCV teens and young adults would like to thank Jillian and her parents Magnus and Matilda for generously funding the swimming trip. Jillian paid a visit to CCV on the 24th of March when her family came back for their second adoption in Manila. Jillian was adopted from CCV in September 2013 and has since lived in Sweden with her loving family.
