Monthly Update From the Chosen Children Village

Barbecue Buffet at The Tent

We kicked off the summer season with a sumptuous barbecue dinner on the first day of April. After helping with the feeding of their less-abled brothers and sisters, the independent children joined Mommy Lita, Daddy Ron, and their special guests at the Javier Tent for an outdoor barbecue buffet.

Dave did an amazing job preparing the food and it is evident that his culinary lessons are paying off. Everyone loved the dishes he put out and ate with gusto, invigorated by the balmy weather.

Water Fun Day : Summer

With temperatures rising, the children were looking forward to using the indoor therapy pool at Arantza Rehabilitation Center. Unfortunately, the pool requires repair and, thus, out of commission.

So what did we do? Our dedicated team put their heads together and came up with a very creative plan for the children to have some aqua fun involving hoses and water balloons one hot April afternoon. Peals of laughter and squeals of delight can be heard throughout the village.

The village goes on a hunt!

Every year, the children look forward to going on an Easter Egg hunt. But with the pandemic raging on and putting a damper on donations, it seemed like there'd be no hunt for this year. Some of the children certainly thought so.

But our mamas and papas are resourceful! Led by Mommy Lita and the teachers, the children still had a jolly good time searching for plastic Easter eggs around the playground area and the Chapel.

It was heartwarming to witness the older children guiding and assisting the younger ones in finding treasure, even if it means that they do not get the eggs themselves. Their small sacrifice shows that we have succeeded in raising children who follow the teaching of Jesus. They inspire us to go beyond our job descriptions and do more for the children. We hope that it inspires you as well to help God's chosen children.

New Pinili Tote Bags on Sale!

Fresh from the success of our collaboration with Kariktan Art in February, the children went back to the classroom and unleashed their creativity on canvas bags. This time, the children painted their interpretation of what lies beyond Angel's Crossing. You can grab a bag for a donation of Php 400. To view the available bags, click here.

Mural Going Up!

Art has always been a big part of children's education. Until recently, their work has always been confined to paper and the occasional canvas. Now, they've been given a bigger platform to showcase their artistry.

Isabel, Dave, Kim, and Niño will bring to life the boring, plain walls of Cottage 11. The work is still in progress but they've taken inspiration from the animals in the Hacienda.

Evelyn and Papa Mark joined forces for The Container Gardening Contest.

April Birthday Celebrations

John Kevin Tatoy reached a milestone! We celebrated his first birthday last April 7th. He has grown so much since he first entered our gates last September.

Niño, May Jean, and Joenabie also had simple celebrations of their 23rd, 21st, and 30th birthdays, respectively.

Angels Crossing

Our heartfelt thanks goes out to our in-kind donors for the month of April.
