

About Us

Chosen Children Village Foundation, Inc. (CCVFI) is a private & non-profit organization whose mission is to provide love, care and education to socially, physically and mentally challenged children. Founded by Ma. Angeles P. Fullerton in 1988, CCVFI is committed to maximize life opportunities for every child under its care. It is a foundation that solely relies on the benevolence and support of the general public and corporations for sponsorship and donations. CCVFI is accredited by the Department of Social Welfare & Development, Philippine Council for NGO Certification and Sangguniang Panlalawigan of Cavite. It is also registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Chosen Children Village is a haven and a home for life for the physically and mentally challenged children. The village has featured facilities which are dedicated to their specific functions. All these facilities aim to nurture, educate, train and provide opportunities for the chosen children. A home that provides hope, love and a smile to life.
